Correspondence via Email

Client reached out with clarification that they do not have the specific breakdown of their donation amounts per transaction, but they were able to provide per-event attendance metrics. Team confirmed that those metrics could be uploaded, and encouraging them that the website should be used to have a better track of per-transaction records. Continued by notifying the client that we were continuing to upload their requested data.